

Draft deed of appointment and renewal

Important notes

- This document is presented as a draft for the consideration of the parties' legal advisers. Every effort has been taken in the preparation of the document to ensure that it is capable of achieving the objectives stated below. However, it is important that legal advice is taken to ensure the provisions of this draft satisfy all specific requirements of the trust's governing documents and applicable legislation. Accordingly, Nucleus can accept no responsibility for any loss occasioned from the use of this draft Deed.
- This Deed may be used to remove (dismiss) an existing trustee by the person who has created a trust of their investments using one of the draft Trusts provided by Nucleus. This will be the Settlor(s) in the case of a Discretionary Gift Trust, Discretionary Loan Trust and Flexible Gift Trust and the Donor(s) in the case of a Bare Gift Trust. In this Deed the Settlor(s) and the Donor(s) are referred to as the Appointor.
- A Trustee can be removed from his or her office of trustee provided at least one Trustee other than the Settlor(s)/Donor(s) remains. This deed assumes that the Settlor(s)/Donor(s) as well as at least one other Trustee will continue to act.
- This deed is not suitable to remove/replace a trustee who has lost mental capacity by his co-trustee(s). In such a case legal advice should be sought.
- This draft deed includes an appointment of a new Trustee to replace the Trustee who is being removed. If it is not desired to simultaneously appoint a new Trustee, a different Deed will be needed.
- If the draft is to be used unamended, the parties should ensure all sections are completed before the document is executed.
- If the Trust is registered with HMRC then any changes of trustees should be notified on TRS by updating the relevant information within 90 days of such a change.
- The completed Deed should be returned to Nucleus Financial Services who will record the names of the Trustees with whom any future dealings will be conducted and pass the details to the relevant Company. Any subsequent changes of Trustee must be notified to Nucleus Financial Services. The original Deed will be returned to the first-named Trustee and should be kept in a safe place.
