I'm pleased to let you know that we've made a multi-million-pound investment in upgrading our service to you. This will deliver an improved investment platform with a new name and brand – Nucleus, that provides:

- A better and more responsive service
- More user-friendly technology

Your next steps

When our new platform is live, we'll automatically upgrade your product(s) to it. What's important for you to do now is:

1. Read your enclosed Key Changes Summary for details about how the service we provide will change, and how this will benefit you.
2. Leave the rest to us: I'll write to you again to confirm when the changes will take place and what happens next. Rest assured that your investments will remain safely invested throughout the upgrade.

Got a question?

You can find out more at nucleusfinancial.com/upgrade-support

Here you'll find additional helpful information, about our upgraded service, and the updated terms and conditions that will apply after the upgrade.

If you'd like a paper copy of these documents, please email ask@nucleusfinancial.com.

If for any reason you don't want to change to our upgraded service, you have the option to transfer to another provider. If we're unable to complete the transfer of your products before they're upgraded to our new platform, we'll honour the existing terms and conditions when the transfer is completed. I recommend you discuss with a financial adviser what is best for you.

Thank you for trusting us to help look after your investments. We look forward to continuing to serve you under our new name, Nucleus

Yours sincerely
