Nucleus Flexi SIPP permitted investments list

7 minute read

What is this document about?

- This document sets out the types of investments you may hold in your Nucleus Flexi SIPP. Please note that the inclusion of any asset types on this list does not mean that we endorse or recommend them, and returns on your investments are not guaranteed.
- As we are not regulated to provide advice, you should read and discuss this information with your Financial Conduct Authority (FCA) regulated financial adviser so they can help you choose the right investments to suit your circumstances.
- All investment transactions must be carried out on a commercial basis. Please note that we reserve the right to decline making an investment if the provider will not provide us with suitable monthly reconciliation data, or for any other reason we deem appropriate.
- The information in this document is based on our current understanding of HM Revenue & Customs (HMRC) guidelines and our own policies, both of which may be subject to change in the future. In particular, if any investment purchased is deemed to be taxable under pension legislation and/or HMRC rules, any subsequent tax liability incurred will be your responsibility.

- Our Product Technical Guide which explains how these types of assets can be purchased.
- Our Guide to How your Money and Investments are Held which provides details of how your assets are held and the protections provided under UK regulations.

Please ensure that you always access our documents from our website literature.nucleusfinancial.com in order to access the most up-to-date information.

What investments can I make in the Flexi SIPP?

Any asset types detailed in this document that are traded on a stock exchange must be purchased and held via the platform's integrated stockbroking service or an off-platform investment manager. If you are unsure which categories this applies to, please contact us.

- Platform funds
- Exchange Traded Investments (ETIs)
- Fixed term deposits and notice accounts from our deposit provider
- Investments held by an off-platform investment manager

Platform funds and ETIs may also be held as part of a managed model portfolio.

Please check the definitions section of this document to help you and your adviser to consider which of these asset types would be suitable for you.

Permitted investments definitions

Platform funds	The funds available on the platform are a mixture of regulated unit trusts and Open Ended Investment Companies (OEICs).
Exchange Traded Investments (ETIs)	These types of investments can be purchased via the platform's integrated stockbroking service. This covers most transferable securities, including shares in companies (equities), Investment Trusts, UK Real Estate Investment Trusts (REITs), government and corporate bonds, Exchange Traded Funds (ETFs), and Exchange Traded Commodities (ETCs).
Fixed term deposits and notice accounts	Fixed term and notice cash deposit accounts opened with our deposit provider. Interest is paid at the rate set on the day that your cash is received by the deposit taker. Accounts are subject to the deposit taker's terms, which may include restrictions on withdrawals during any fixed term or notice period. Please visit the Investments page of our website nucleusfinancial.com for availability and further information.
Investments held by an off-platform investment manager	This covers most transferable securities, including shares in companies (equities), UK Real Estate Investment Trusts (REITs), government and corporate bonds, Exchange Traded Funds (ETFs), and Exchange Traded Commodities (ETCs). The investment manager must be UK based and FCA regulated, and agree to our operational requirements. Please visit our website for a list of the third parties with whom we currently have agreements, and refer to your chosen investment manager for further information.

Liquidity

Please note that there can sometimes be difficulties in selling an asset. This could be due to a number of factors, including events such as:

- insolvency of the investment
- adverse stock market conditions
- selling restrictions placed on funds by their managers, for example, suspension of redemptions.

In circumstances like these, you might not be able to sell your holdings in a timely manner, and the value of those assets could fall.

You should consider the liquidity of the assets you purchase, and your options if they can't be sold on demand.

Complex Products

Some of these investment types could be Complex Products. Under regulations, there is no definition of Complex Products, though these can typically be investments involving:

- any potential customer liability that exceeds the cost of the investment
- the right to materially change the nature or risk of the investment or payout value
- derivatives or a structure which makes it difficult for the customer to understand
- disproportionate exit charges that could have the effect of making the investment illiquid or where the opportunity to sell is infrequent.

We will only allow you to invest in Complex Products if you have received regulated financial advice in respect of the proposed investment. If you are unsure if a proposed investment is a Complex Product, please speak directly to the investment provider.
